

Serve – God and Others

September 23, 2018

Thank you so much for choosing to worship with us today! We are thrilled you are here!

For by the grace given me I say to every one of you: Do not think of yourself more highly than you ought, but rather think of yourself with sober judgment, in accordance with the faith God has distributed to each of you. For just as each of us has one body with many members, and these members do not all have the same function, so in Christ we, though many, form one body, and each member belongs to all the others. We have different gifts, according to the grace given to each of us. If your gift is prophesying, then prophesy in accordance with your faith; if it is serving, then serve; if it is teaching, then teach; if it is to encourage, then give encouragement; if it is giving, then give generously; if it is to lead, do it diligently; if it is to show mercy, do it cheerfully.

Romans 12:3-8

We have been sold on a false notion that everything is about us. Society has created an environment that has most everyone believing that the world revolves around us as individuals. That what we want or perceive that we need is the most important thing in the world.

Nothing could be further than the truth. Read this slowly and let it sink in – “Do not think of yourself more highly than you ought, but rather think of yourself with sober judgement, in accordance with the faith God has distributed to each of you.”

Life is about how you use your faith in God to serve Him by serving others. We belong to each other in Christ and therefore should serve each other. The gifts mentioned here are all about how we can make a difference in the lives of others.

Use your gift/gifts from God as a way to serve!

All Things for Christ,
Michael
