

Living in the Light

October 21, 2018

Thank you so much for choosing to worship with us today! We are thrilled you are here!

And do this, understanding the present time: The hour has already come for you to wake up from your slumber, because our salvation is nearer now than when we first believed. The night is nearly over; the day is almost here. So let us put aside the deeds of darkness and put on the armor of light. Let us behave decently, as in the daytime, not in carousing and drunkenness, not in sexual immorality and debauchery, not in dissension and jealousy. Rather, clothe yourselves with the Lord Jesus Christ, and do not think about how to gratify the desires of the flesh.

Romans 13:11-14

Growing up I remember a few sayings that were supposed to make you think before you did anything:

“Your sin will find you out.”

“Character is what/who you are when no one else is looking.”

“Nothing you do is ever really secret. Someone will always know.”

We have a tendency to hide and do things ‘in the dark’ or ‘in secret’ hoping that nobody finds out. History has proven that people can find out just about anything, especially in today’s world of technology. Satan wants us to hide and do things in the dark – he is the prince of darkness.

Paul’s words here to ‘put on the armor of light and behave decently as in the daytime’ are so important for our witness about Jesus. If we clothe ourselves with Jesus our concern becomes living for Him. And living for Jesus is always something to put in the light.

Let your light shine today in all you do!

All Things for Christ,
Michael
